

MEDIA RELEASE: 24th November 2013

The second hole in one on Nullarbor Links has been sunk.

Edward Down from Brisbane has achieved the difficult task at the Par 3 Border Kangaroo, Edward hit the Jackpot late Sunday afternoon. We expect that a few pints were consumed to celebrate

Here is where Edward would have like for lady luck to have happened. "I would have preferred to bag the hole in one back in Brisbane in front of all my disbelieving mates, but you don't get to choose when dumb luck is going to smile on you, do you"? Edward Scored a respectable 95 for his round on The World's Longest Golf Course.
